

CONSTITUTION & BYLAWS

Culinary Arts & Cooking Club of Temple University

Ratified: September 18, 2024 • Last Revised: September 2, 2026 • Ref ID: TU-STU-CUL-2026-084

Preamble: We, the undergraduate and graduate students of Temple University, united in our shared passion for culinary exploration, nutritional awareness, cultural exchange, and communal fellowship, do hereby establish and ordain this Constitution for the Temple University Culinary Arts & Cooking Club.

ARTICLE I — NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1 (Official Name): The official name of this recognized student organization shall be the Temple Culinary Arts & Cooking Club (hereinafter referred to as the "Organization" or "TCCC").

Section 2 (Mission & Objectives): The Organization is dedicated to enriching campus life through gastronomic education, accessible culinary workshops, communal dinners, and charitable food outreach initiatives in the greater North Philadelphia community. The primary objectives are:

- To instruct students in foundational kitchen safety, sanitary knife handling, and nutritional meal preparation.
- To cultivate an inclusive environment celebrating international culinary traditions and dietary cultures.
- To partner with local food pantries, community kitchens, and regional suppliers to address student food insecurity.
- To foster professional collaboration with culinary instructors, guest chefs, and hospitality industry leaders.

ARTICLE II — MEMBERSHIP & ELIGIBILITY

Section 1 (General Eligibility): Membership is open to all currently matriculated full-time and part-time undergraduate and graduate students at Temple University. In compliance with Temple University regulations and Title IX, TCCC does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religious creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, ancestry, age, disability, marital status, or veteran status.

Section 2 (Active Standing): An active member is defined as an individual who has completed the mandatory Kitchen Safety Orientation, signed the General Culinary Liability Waiver, and attended at least two (2) general body meetings or workshop lab sessions per semester.

Section 3 (Associate Membership): Temple faculty, staff, and alumni may participate as associate members without voting privileges or executive office eligibility.

ARTICLE III — EXECUTIVE BOARD & RESPONSIBILITIES

The management and administration of the Organization shall be vested in an elected Executive Board consisting of four primary executive officers and two committee chairs:

Executive Role	Primary Responsibilities	Term Length
President

Executive Role	Primary Responsibilities	Term Length
	Presides over all meetings, acts as official university liaison, oversees general body logistics and compliance.	1 Academic Year
Vice President	Manages internal committees, coordinates kitchen facility bookings, assumes presidential duties in absence.	1 Academic Year
Director of Culinary Operations	Supervises ingredient procurement, kitchen sanitation standards, knife safety enforcement, and pantry inventory.	1 Academic Year
Treasurer	Maintains organizational financial ledger, prepares Student Activities budget proposals, and monitors dues.	1 Academic Year
Director of Communications	Maintains digital outreach, social platforms, promotional flyers, newsletter mailings, and photography.	1 Academic Year

ARTICLE IV — KITCHEN SAFETY, SANITATION, AND LAB PROTOCOL

Section 1 (Sanitation Standards): All workshops involving food preparation must comply strictly with the Philadelphia Department of Public Health food safety regulations and Temple Student Center kitchen facility guidelines.

Section 2 (Certification & Oversight): At least one ServSafe Food Handler-certified officer must be physically present during any official cooking demonstration, kitchen lab session, or public food distribution event.

Section 3 (Equipment Maintenance): Club-owned cutlery, induction burners, cookware, and sanitation gear shall be inventoried bi-weekly by the Director of Culinary Operations. Damaged equipment must be decommissioned immediately.

ARTICLE V — MEETINGS, ELECTIONS, AND AMENDMENTS

Section 1 (General Body Meetings): GBMs shall be conducted bi-weekly on alternating Wednesdays during the fall and spring semesters in designated campus kitchen facilities or multi-purpose seminar rooms.

Section 2 (Elections): Executive Board elections shall be held annually during the penultimate general body meeting of the spring semester. Candidates must be active members in good academic standing (minimum 2.5 GPA). Voting shall occur via secret electronic ballot, with a simple majority required for victory.

Section 3 (Constitutional Amendments): Proposed amendments to this constitution must be submitted in writing to the Executive Board at least fourteen (14) days prior to a scheduled GBM and require a two-thirds (2/3) supermajority vote of the active voting body for ratification.

Elena Rostova

President, Temple Culinary Arts & Cooking Club
Student Identification: 915-842-109

Dr. Marcus Vance, Ph.D.

Faculty Advisor, Dept. of Tourism & Hospitality Management
Temple University School of Sport, Tourism and Hospitality Management